Celebration of “National Unity Day” on 31st October 2017

From time immemorial, our National Leaders have tried to unite the diverse structure of our society. In pursuance of creating such awareness amongst people to unite the people residing in different villages, towns and other parts of India, “Rashtriya Ekta Diwas” (“National Unity Day”) is celebrated on 31st October 2017 across the country.

With a view to mark the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and foster the Government’s dedication to preserve and strengthen unity, integrity and security of our nation, NIESBUD celebrated “National Unity Day” in its campus. As an endeavour to solidify the bond of oneness and unification, Dr Rishi Raj Singh, Training Officer administered the unity pledge to NIESBUD officials.
